IMPORTANT: COVID-19 Information:

- Up to $500,000 of this plan's 5 million maximum ($2,000,000 for group policies) can be used to cover emergency medical expenses related to COVID-19.
- You won't be able to claim for COVID-19 related expenses in these instances:
 - If you've been diagnosed with COVID-19 within the 180 days before you leave on your trip.
 - If you're experiencing COVID-19 symptoms before you leave on your trip.
 - If you're purchasing more coverage to top up your GMS plan and you've been diagnosed with COVID-19 within the stability period that's outlined in your original GMS plan.
 - COVID-19 testing unless it is medically necessary or needed in the case of an emergency.
- Make sure to check for Government of Canada Travel Advisories (<https://travel.gc.ca/travelling/advisories>) for your destination.
 - If there is an "Avoid all travel" advisory for any reason, there is no coverage.
 - If there is an "Avoid non-essential travel" advisory for any reason other than COVID-19, there is no coverage.
- If you choose to travel, GMS Travel Assistance Services may be limited in their ability to assist with a medical emergency, or your entry back into Canada. Reduced availability of medical resources and actions taken by countries to limit the spread of COVID-19, could make it difficult for our travel assistance services to help you.

WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW BEFORE YOU COMPLETE YOUR PURCHASE:

- This insurance covers claims arising from sudden and unforeseen circumstances.
- There are limitations and exclusions in the policy. Examples include: medical conditions that are not stable for 180 days, pregnancy and risky activities., etc. For more information, see the policy's exclusion section. In the event of a claim your medical history may be reviewed.
- In the event of a claim your medical history may be reviewed.
- If an answer to a medical question is not accurate or complete, this policy will be voided.
- The Multi-Trip Annual plan is non-refundable after the effective date.
- Claims related to pre-existing medical conditions and symptoms may not be covered.

It is important that you read your insurance policy before you travel.
